	mmendation 2.4 jority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Yes, from 1 July 2017	The Board Charter requires that, ideally, the majority of the Board be independent.
		34, 2017	Four of the nine Directors are independent; therefore, a majority of the Board of the Company is considered not independent. The Board considers that each of Michael Spreadborough, Roger Harley, Ian Knight and Eric Finlayson are independent directors for the purpose of the ASX Recommendations as each is free from any interest, position, association or relationship that could materially interfere with, or reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with, the independent exercise of their judgement. The appointment of director Stefanie Loader effective 1 July 2017 together with the resignation of non-independent director, Mr Peter Voigt now ensures that a majority of the Board is considered independent.

No	The role of Chairman and Managing Director are exercised by the different people. The role of Chairman is exercised by Co-Chairmen Robert Friedland and Jiang Zhaobai. The role of Managing Director is exercised by Sam Riggall. Whilst the Board acknowledges that this arrangement diverges from the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, the Board is firmly of the view that it has sufficient procedures in place to safeguard independence and ensure that the best interests of shareholders are paramount. Further, the Board believes that the skills and experience that Mr Friedland, Mr Zhaobai and Mr Riggall bring to the Company are extensive, add to the broad mix of skills required, and are sufficient to fulfil the roles of Chairman and Managing Director.
Yes	The Company has in place an appropriate induction program.
