Smart Parking Limited (ASX:SPZ) Secures Hobart City Council Contract

Highlights

- Smart Parking wins contract with Hobart City Council valued at approximately $0.8m
- Smart Parking will provide 2,100 sensors to give Hobart residents real-time parking data
- Smart Parking extends contract with Hamilton City Council valued at approximately $0.1m

14th August, 2017 - Global parking business Smart Parking Limited (ASX:SPZ) ('Smart Parking' or 'the Company') Smart Parking is pleased to announce it has secured a new contract in Australia and expanded a recent win in New Zealand worth approximately $0.9m combined.

Smart Parking will partner with Australian Parking and Revenue Control (APARC) in Hobart and provide 2,100 sensors that give residents real-time data on available parking spaces.

Smart Parking is also pleased to announce its continued expansion in New Zealand with a contract extension at Hamilton City Council. Recently SPZ announced winning a contract with Hamilton City Council to install 945 sensors in the City. However, since commencing this installation the council has expanded the project by a further 400 sensors.

CEO Commentary

Smart Parking CEO Paul Gillespie: "We are proud to announce the new contract with Hobart City Council. The continued uptake of our systems in Australia and beyond further cements our position as a world leader in the design, development and management of parking technology. We are also pleased to be working with APARC, which distributes machines made by Parkeon, a major player in parking management solutions".

Ends.
