Richard Wright passes away

It is with deep sadness that The Board of Tempo Australia Limited (Tempo or the Company) advises that Mr Richard (Dick) Wright, Non-Executive Director of the Company, passed away yesterday morning Sunday the 6th of April 2014.

Dick Wright was one of the founders of the Company who, along with fellow director Carmelo Bontempo, created Tempo in August 2011 where they sought to fill a perceived gap in the market as well as to improve productivity and time performance of project delivery. Since the inception of Tempo, Dick has worked tirelessly on the advancement of the company.

A mining and energy veteran, Dick throughout his career held numerous board and executive positions for both private and publicly listed companies in Australia, Europe and the United States of America. Dick commenced his career in Broken Hill NSW and since then was a key part of several large scale mining and infrastructure projects in the Pilbara and across Australia.

Most notably Dick held the positions of Managing Director of Fluor Daniel Australia, Executive Chairman of Adrail for the construction of the Darwin to Alice Springs Railway, and more recently included holding the position of Project Director of the large scale Roy Hill iron ore project in the Pilbara of Western Australia.

The Board of Directors and employees of the Company would like to extend their condolences to the Wright family and express how grateful they have been for the support and advice he has so willingly given to the Company, its Board Members and Employees during his term as a Director.
