Award of General Services Contract with Santos Limited

Tempo Australia Limited (ASX: TPP) is pleased to announce its subsidiary, Tempo Construction & Maintenance Pty Ltd, has been awarded a three-year general services contract with Santos Limited for trade labour resources, with a focus on the Cooper Basin of South-West Queensland.

Tempo's Chairman, Carmelo Bontempo, said: "We are pleased to have entered into this service agreement with Santos and to be positioned as a supplier to a world-class oil and gas company."

"Tempo has invested significant resources this year in developing its systems, processes, people and capabilities to meet the requirements of prospective oil and gas clients. This contract award, plus the successful completion of the recent Achilles audit, is a reflection of this step change and demonstrates the company's growth potential within the oil and gas sector."

"Tempo looks forward to working with Santos in the future."
