

RESIGNATION OF EXPLORATION DIRECTOR

Thundelarra announces the resignation of the Company's Exploration Director, Mr Brian Richardson, to pursue other business interests. Mr Richardson's resignation will be effective from 29 June 2012.

Thundelarra's Chairman Mr Malcolm Randall thanked Mr Richardson for his excellent contribution to the development of the Company over the last 12 years. Mr Randall, whilst disappointed at Brian's departure, said that he is leaving Thundelarra in a very strong position, with JORC resources calculated at three of its advanced copper, base metal and uranium project interests in Western Australia and the Northern Territory.
