

Resignation of Non-Executive Director

Red River Resources Limited (ASX: RVR) (“Red River” or the “Company”) announces that Mr James Black has resigned from the Board of Directors of Red River. His resignation is effective from 23 August 2018.

Managing Director Mel Palancian said “On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Jim for his guidance and dedication over the past 3 years in helping Red River become a base metals producer. We wish Jim all the best for his next ventures.”

About Red River Resources (ASX: RVR)

RVR is a leading ASX pure base metal producer, with its key asset being the high quality Thalanga Operation in North Queensland. RVR commenced concentrate production at the Thalanga Operation in September 2017 and RVR is focused on maximising returns from the Project by increasing plant throughput and extending mine life through increasing Mineral Resources and Ore Reserves at deposits currently in the mine plan (West 45, Thalanga Far West and Waterloo), by potentially converting Mineral Resources into Ore Reserves at Liontown and Orient and by continuing to aggressively explore our growing pipeline of high quality targets within the surrounding area.

On behalf of the Board,

Mel Palancian
Managing Director
Red River Resources Limited
