Letter of Award

The Board of Tempo Australia Ltd (Tempo) is pleased to announce its wholly owned subsidiary, Tempo Construction and Maintenance Pty Ltd, has received a letter of award for the refurbishment of a fuel storage tank in the Pilbara. The value of the contract will be $1.9 Million and scheduled to commence in July.

Nick Bowen, Chairman of Tempo, stated “We are pleased with the award of this Contract and the progress of the business since embarking on the organic growth strategy announced last year. Despite the market conditions, the company has a strong pipeline of tendering opportunities and presents an exciting time in the development of the company.”
